CITY COMMITTEE FAILS TO AGREE ON CURTAILMENT

Adjournment is Taken to Hear Suggestions of Commissioners.

DOUGLAS HAS AXE OUT FOR RICHARDSON

Salaries of Commissioners May Be Reduced Fifty Per Cent.

For the purpose of discussing ways and means for reducing the city's expenses, the present period of financial depression and specifically for the purpose of considering the advisability of reducing the number of city commissioners, the special committee appointed by the city council met with Mayor McNamara on Monday afternoon. The committee consists of Aldermen Campbell, chairman; Douglas, Kinney and Sheppard. No definite conclusion was reached on any subject and the committee adjourned, shortly after 6 o'clock, to meet again on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock when the city commissioners will be solving the solution of curtailment.

Opinion was widely divided on the matter of reducing the number of city commissioners. Alderman Sheppard favored retaining the entire board and reducing the salaries of each by 50 per cent, stating that he was opposed to weakening the organization by piling the work of more than one department on any commissioner. Alderman Douglas wanted to dismiss Commissioners Chalmers and Saunders and place Commissioner Harrison in charge of the department of operation. Alderman Sheppard thought it would be poor policy to dismiss Commissioner Chalmers, a man of wide experience, and place the affairs of the operation department in the hands of Commissioner Harrison, who he did not believe competent, in the matter of experience; to properly perform the duties of the department.

The mayor favored retaining Commissioners Chalmers and Booth, if it were deemed necessary to cut down the number of commissioners, but he spoke highly of the other members of the commission. Alderman Douglas had the axe out for Deputy Finance Commissioner Richardson, expressing the opinion that there was very little for that department to take care of at the present time, and that the mayor, who is the finance commissioner, really could perform all the duties of that department. Alderman Campbell was non-committal.

It was suggested by Alderman Sheppard that the commissioners be allowed to remain if they would accept a 50 per cent cut in their salaries as it was feared that in this way the payroll of the commissioners could be cut down to $17,500 a year. There was an informal discussion concerning city finances, but no definite conclusion was reached. Commissioner Chalmers was called on the carpet for having advised the larger consumers of water, including the Packing House in North Edmonton, that a scarcity of water might result from a shortage of coal. To the satisfaction of the committee, he explained that he sent out the notices as a precautionary measure because of the fact that the Canadian Pacific railway had advised him that no more coal would be delivered at the water works plant unless the freight was prepaid.

KIDNEY TROUBLE AFFECTED HIS SPINE

Suffered For Forty Years Until He Used "Fruit-A-Tives"

"For about forty years, I was troubled with Lame Back brought on by Kidney and Bladder Trouble. I was never confined to my bed with the trouble, but it affected my spine and I had to rest for a time. I took advice, remedied which never did me any good. Then I saw 'Fruit-A-Tives' advertised and decided to try them. My son suffered from the same trouble and frequently had to leave school, but 'Fruit-A-Tives' remedied it for him. I would strongly advise anyone suffering from Kidney and Bladder Trouble to use 'Fruit-A-Tives'."

12,000 BRITISH SOLDIERS NOW ON FRENCH TERRITORY

Transports Began August 8—Many Trainloads of Supplies and Equipment.

London, Aug. 18.—The official war information bureau announced that the British expeditionary forces have landed safely on the French shore. New York, Aug. 18.—Details of the assembling, embarking and size of the British military forces at Plymouth for the scene of hostilities in Belgium and France, facts which the English censors have jealously guarded from casual messages to this country were related today by passengers who arrived on the liner New Amsterdam yesterday. The New Amsterdam took on about 100 passengers at Plymouth.

While in Plymouth the activity of the British army authorities was estimated from August 5, when the concentration officers began, until August 9, when the New Amsterdam sailed from that port. It was estimated that fully 120,000 men had been assembled. It was supposed that the greater part of this force was taken across the English channel to France aboard ten transport vessels and army transports, then being in the harbor. The troops, according to these passengers, began going aboard the transports on August 8, and on the following day the advance guard of the cavalry began to arrive in the city together with many train loads of supplies and hospital equipment including 700 large motor buses.

GERMANS IN BATTLE MISTAKE TURCOS FOR THEIR OWN TROOPS

Paris, Aug. 18.—A news despatch from Marcellus says that wounded soldiers arriving there from Alsace relate that the Turcos native soldiers from the French possessions in Africa, who made their first appearance in the fighting around Mulhausen, are the only French troops clothed in khaki, the color closely resembling that of the German uniform. The Germans mistook the Turcos for their own troops until they were close up and fell upon the German entrenchments with a wild yell.

WALKED 236 MILES IN ORDER TO JOIN 101ST CONTINGENT

All British Reservists in Canada, Married and Single, Called Upon.

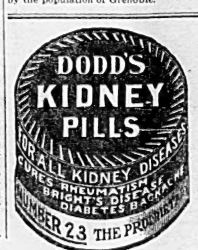

Tired and weary after having walked a distance of 236 miles in order to enlist, A. Gowan, a homesteader living north of Gravel, has just arrived in the city and been enrolled as a member of the 101st. Gowan covered the whole distance between his home and the city on foot. He has been accepted by the C. Company (Captain Young). He was formerly in the Queen's Own regiment, of Edinburgh. Numerous injuries have occurred of men coming into town long distances and in spite of considerable obstacles in order to enlist.

All British reservists in Canada, married and single, have been called to the front, it is stated. H. Stafford, of the Alert, detective agency, has selected instructions to this effect and is leaving at once for Quebec. George Morris, formerly Home Guard Inspector and candidate for the provincial legislature, having opposed H. E. Shaw in the last provincial general election, has gone to the front with the Princess Patricia's. A number of Fort Saskatchewan men have joined the service squadron of the 13th Dragoons, the contingent from the Port of Charles. Whitehead, J. Forsythe, C. K. Ayles, T. D. McEllan, C. P. Landoway, W. Dempsey, H. C. Bessie, C. A. Martin and J. Wright.

MONKS EXPELLED FROM FRANCE RETURN: WILL FIGHT FOR COUNTRY

Paris, Aug. 18.—The Eclair states that all the Carthusian monks of military age, who were expelled from France at the time that the law restricting religious associations was adopted, have returned to the barracks at Grenoble and exchanged the white habit of the Order of St. Bruno for the uniform of the French army. They were given enthusiastic reception by the population of Grenoble.

Great Battle Said to Have Begun Between Germans and Allied Troops—Seat of Government Has Been Moved to Antwerp—Historic Battleground of Waterloo Likely to Be Scene of Fierce Conflict.

London, Aug. 18.—The Daily Express says that there is little doubt that a great battle is now occurring in Belgium between the Germans and the Belgian and French allies.

A Reuter despatch from Brussels says: "The seat of government has been moved to Antwerp. Measures have been taken for the defence of Brussels because of the approach of German cavalry."

A Havas despatch from Brussels says: "It is expected that the legations will follow the government to Antwerp, but the French minister will remain here, sending the councillor to Antwerp to keep in touch with the Belgian government."

Ask Correspondents to Leave.

London, Aug. 18.—The Brussels correspondent of the Reuter Telegram company reports that the British foreign office has made official representations to Belgium urging the view that, as the entire country must be regarded as covered by the war, Belgium should summon the correspondents of the British newspapers and news agencies to leave Belgium; and further, that only Belgian journalists should be permitted to enter or remain in Belgium. Traveling facilities will be provided to enable foreign correspondents to leave the country.

Germans Getting Wier.

LEGISLATION WORTHY OF VERY CAREFUL WATCHING.

In the forecast of the parliamentary program for the session which opens in Ottawa today there is reference to the intention to place in the criminal code an amendment giving the authorities power "to deal more effectively with persons charged with disloyalty or designs against the country."

Just at this juncture, when the country is all stirred up about the war and when the passion for "loyalty" is rampant, it will stand the free and independent electors of this dominion well in hand to keep a very careful eye on this particular legislation.

Every limitation to free speech which has ever found its way into the statutes of any country at any time has been for the purpose of giving the authorities power to deal more effectively with disloyalty. Almost every progressive statesman who has ever advocated a reform has been compelled to meet the charge of disloyalty. Upon this count the chartists were jailed and some of them hanged. The advocates of home rule have been hounded, flayed and massacred for disloyalty. The Canadian progressives who broke up the family compact and whose names are revered throughout the Dominion today were counted as the incarnation of disloyalty, branded as traitors and, by the laws giving the authorities power to deal with disloyalty, were forced into the position of rebels against the country which they loved and were attempting to save from the worst treachery to public interest with which this dominion has yet had to deal. Papineau, Cartier, Howe, MacKenzie, George Brown, all of the great reformers in Canada have at one time or another been charged with disloyalty by people who made a screen of their blatant pseudo patriotism, behind which they attempted to loot their country.

Legislation "to give the authorities power to deal more effectively with persons charged with disloyalty" is very dangerous legislation indeed. Its introduction at this time by the Borden government is a distinct breach of the neutrality which has been declared between the two great political parties in Canada and as such brands Borden and his followers as the very worst kind of traitors, most especially in view of the fact that in the present state of the public mind some drastic and thoroughly reactionary measure might be introduced and pushed by the opponents of free speech while the exponents were disarmed by the risk they would run of having their intentions misconstrued into traitorous and disloyal utterances.

HUMAN LIFE THE CHEAPEST THING IN EUROPE.

With the European war yet only two weeks old and with the great armies still engaged in manoeuvring for position preparatory to the first big battle, the casualties to date in Belgium alone—if the despatches are even approximately correct—must aggregate something considerably in excess of one hundred thousand men.

Making a reduction which would allow for the luridness of the war correspondent's imagination, the number of killed in the Belgian hostilities to date is still almost as great as the whole grown-up male population of the province of Alberta at the present time.

What has happened along the borders of Austria and Russia or of Germany and Russia we hear very little about, and of what has happened upon the sea we hear almost nothing, while the screen which has hid the Austrian and Servian hostilities has been equally impenetrable. Nevertheless, the casualty list in every one of these different theaters of warfare must have already been large, quite possibly bringing the grand aggregate up to twice that of the grown-up male population of this province of Alberta.

This seems like a great catastrophe; yet we are told that the affairs so far have been merely curtain-raisers, minor outpost affairs having no great military significance. The real slaughter may be looked forward to when, within a few days, the big battles commence. When these come a brigade or two wiped out or a regiment shot to pieces will scarcely be worth a line, and whole contingents may perish in some of the rushes without the censor recognizing the event as incumbent upon him to raise the screen.

Human life is going to be about the cheapest thing in Europe for the next few weeks or months.

WANTED: A FINANCIAL AGENCY IN NEW YORK.

Right in the midst of the disruption of old-established financial conduits for the conveyance of money from London into Canadian municipal coffers, Montreal, adjusting itself to the new condition, floats a loan of $7,300,000 in New York at a price which is actually better than the best received for Montreal debentures in London in 1913.

He who runs may read. The war has suddenly thrust this country into an entirely new set of conditions. Old connections have been broken by the financial stream drying up at the source. For any Canadian city to sit idly by and wait for the war to terminate so that the old connection could be established would be simply to waste that much time. Montreal, having recognized this, finds the money to fulfil this year's program.

Right at this time the thing Edmonton needs most is a financial agency in New York.

EUROPEAN WAR TO SWELL TIDE FAIR VISITORS IN 1915

Enormous Numbers Who Generally Cross Atlantic Will Go to Pacific.

It's an ill wind that blows nobody good, and even the present European war will do good—outside altogether of its economic and political effects. It will help the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco to be by far the most stupendous affair of its kind ever staged on earth.

Every year about 300,000 Canadians and Americans cross the Atlantic to visit Europe. At the present time there are nearly 200,000 there trying to get back.

The logical place to which those 300,000, or the 200,000 who would in the natural course of events take their place, will go next year, to San Francisco. The war will hardly be over in time for the average number to go to Europe, and it is certain that only a negligible number will go if hostilities are still on.

Furthermore, it is said that the number of people from the continent of South America who visit Europe during an average year is even greater than those who go from North America. South America is, in fact, more closely connected with Europe socially and commercially, than with the United States. The war will sever these connections and give the northern southern parts of the western world an opportunity to become better acquainted, and splendid cities of Brazil, Argentina and the South Americans, from the rich and other centers in that continent, will go to San Francisco next year for the same reason that hundreds of Americans who usually go to Europe will visit probably the most interesting city and country on the globe.

France, Italy and other nations involved in the war are sending huge exhibits of the exposition. However, it is not for San Francisco alone that hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions, will go to California next year. There is another big exposition, the Panama-California, at San Diego. Its duration will be even longer than the one at San Francisco. Then there are other fairs and carnivals and a trip to California, even without fairs, is always interesting.

Although the opening date of the San Francisco fair is still six months off, the buildings and grounds are 95 per cent. complete.

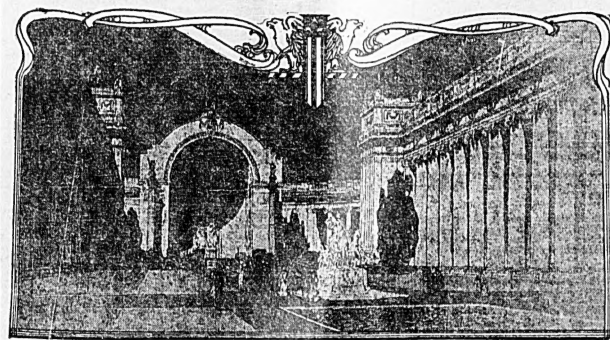

GERMAN EMPEROR MAKES OVERTURES TO BELGIUM'S KING

London, Aug. 18.—According to the Times after heavy casualties which the Germans incurred before the Liege forts, the emperor approached King Albert of Belgium, through the queen of Holland, and proposed in recognition of Belgian valor, most considerate treatment, if Belgium would abandon her resistance and allow the German troops right of way through Belgium. These overtures, the Times says, were actually received by Belgium.

However, it is not for San Francisco alone that hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions, will go to California next year. There is another big exposition, the Panama-California, at San Diego. Its duration will be even longer than the one at San Francisco. Then there are other fairs and carnivals and a trip to California, even without fairs, is always interesting.

Although the opening date of the San Francisco fair is still six months off, the buildings and grounds are 95 per cent. complete.

Each of the four corners of this court, which is designed by Mr. Henry Bacon, architect of the Lincoln memorial at Washington, there will be a great niche containing statuary typifying the four seasons, spring, summer, autumn and winter. The court will be luxuriant with tropical growth. Behind the columns of the colonnade encircling the court will be mural paintings expressive of the theme of the court and designed by Mr. Jules Guerin, one of America's most noted decorative artists.

SCULPTURE WILL EXALT AMERICA'S WORK AT PANAMA-PACIFIC EXPOSITION; COLOSSAL GROUPS OF STATUARY DESIGNED BY WORLD'S NOTED SCULPTORS

Festival Hall, Sculpture at work and Figure "Rain."

The sculpture of the Panama-Pacific exposition will carry out the note of the exposition in celebrating the opening of the Panama canal. The spirit of achievement as exemplified by America's work at Panama will be realized through the works of a number of America's greatest sculptors, who have completed many of the models. These are now being enlarged to prodigious size in the sculptural warehouses on the exposition grounds.

The statuary is being executed upon a vast and wonderful scale. In its complete presentation of the plastic art, it will carry forward the work of the great expositions of the past, each of which has marked a distinct advance in the popular appreciation of sculpture.

The sculpture is designed to form a sequence from the moment the visitor enters the grounds. The dominating architectural feature of the exposition, the 430-foot Tower of Jewels, will be decorated with much figure of an armored horseman.

ENGLAND BLAMED FOR JAP'S STAND

Washington, D. C., Aug. 18.—Germany's ultimatum for Japan's withdrawal of German influence in China, has not yet officially been explained as the German embassy here is without information as to the actual presentation of Japan's demands.

But from posted sources it is gathered that Germany's position is likely to be along the following general lines: Japan's action is regarded as essentially a war move on the part of England, as it was proposed and requested by England, and was not done on the spontaneous initiative of Japan. From the German standpoint, this is regarded as part of England's diplomacy in war times; to cause a diversion from main field of action in Europe and arouse antagonism to Germany in other parts of the world at a time when all German interests are concentrated on her task in Europe.

WAS CURED BY THE USE OF DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY

Mrs. Martin Farragher, Dufferin Corner, N.B., writes: "I can very strongly recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for Dysentery and Summer Complaints. My little girl, at the age of two years, had the dysentery very bad. We had two doctors, but with no result. My mother brought me a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and when half the bottle was used the little girl was running around playing with her dolls with great delight and joy to the family, for we did not think she would ever get better."

Imitators have even gone so far as to imitate our wrapper in color and style, and have adopted similar names, such as Strawberry Compound, Extract of Strawberry, Wild Strawberry Compound, etc., which preparations they have been trying to sell as the genuine, at a higher price to themselves, but unfortunately not to the consumers, who sometimes have had to employ medical aid afterwards. Do not be led into taking a substitute for "Dr. Fowler's" and thus endanger your life.

EXHIBITION RACES SATURDAY CLOSED A SUCCESSFUL WEEK

Seven evenings provided fine afternoon's program—Pari Mutuels Paid Some Fair Returns to Investors—Harness Events Were Won in Straight Heats—Little Bill Beat Jack Adams and Sprung Surprise—Jungle Beat Sam Rank in Mile Run—Free-For-All Harness Event Won by College Gent.

Saturday was get-away day at the exhibition races, and the seven big events—three harness and four running—provided no end of excitement and opportunities for the bettors to "even up." Although there were no real big surprises in any of the races, yet there were bets to be made, and were made, that paid good returns on the investment, and the betting on nearly all events was comparatively heavy. It was the last day for the boys to "set even" and they made the most of it, with varied degrees of success.

College Gent Won Fast.
College Gent surprised the race fans by coming to the front in the first heat in the free-for-all, and paid good money on this heat. He paid $24.25 for $5 straight and $9.70 for $2 straight. After finishing second in the first heat and paid $16.25 and $6.50 on place tickets. Indro, who ran third, paid $6.00 for $2 show tickets, which is unusually good. In the next two heats College Gent was favorite and won both, but paid less than in the initial mile. Homer Mac, running second in the third heat, paid $21.75 and $8.70 for place tickets, and won third money for the race. The last time for the race was 2:08 1-4.

Sir Wilfrid Three Straight.
There was something doing in the first heat, won easily and paid $16.25 and $6.50 for straight tickets. Sir Wilfrid 2:25 trot, and Grey Ghost, who took the lead, who ran second in this heat, took the next three in a row and started favorite in the three heats after the first. In the third, Grey Ghost broke and finished third. The fourth heat was very close and the most exciting of the after-noon, when Senotta The Great, who stepped out in the stretch in the fourth, and went under the wire neck and neck with the winner Sir Wilfrid, who paid $11.75 and $4.70. The best time for the race was 2:18 1-4.

Joe McGregor Won Easily.
The 2:15 trot was won by Joe McGregor in straight heats after the first, which was won by Lady Goo Goo, who paid $14.75 and $12.50 for straight tickets in the initial heat. Joe McGregor was favorite ever after the first mile. His best pay was $12.00 and $4.00 for win bets. Sister Norte stepped into $10.25 and $4.10 to her backers. Strath, second place in the third heat and paid tell, who finished second in the fourth heat, paid $7.75 and $3.10. The fastest time was made by McGregor in the second heat when he stepped the mile in 2:08 1-4.

May Showers Was Beaten.
When Laura Clay bounded under the wire a winner in the six furlongs selling, the favorite had not won, for May Showers was picked to win by a great many, and carried all kinds of money. The little bay was nervous, however, and didn't even show. Laura Clay was also heavily backed and paid $9.20 and $3.70 for straight and $6.70 and $2.70 for place. Luke Van Zandt, who ran for in the week had come home in front and won a lot of money for his backers, finished second and paid $4.25 and $3.50. The show money was taken by Tripping, who came up in the last furlong and ended in ahead of May Showers. Telegram, who was the low horse on the machines, was left at the post and straggled in.

Little Bill Sprung Surprise.
Jack Adams was favorite in the five furlongs, but failed to come through, and was beaten out by Little Bill, a small horse, who proved himself capable of going the short distance. Adams ran place, however, as he left his spirit too long, and Chlosterman finished third ahead of Roy V. The defeat of Jack Adams came as a surprise to all except the backers of Little Bill.

Jungle Beat Sam Rank.
The one mile novelty race for runners was won by Jungle, who beat out Sam Rank. Both horses were played heavily, and Sam Rank was looked upon as probable winner because of his win the day previous. Dan Peck ran third and paid $6.25 and $2.50. Jungle paid $11.50 and $4.60, while Sam Rank paid only $6.25 and $2.10. Irish Boy and Nudge Horton also ran.

Scrimmage Paid Even Money.

HATTERS HAD ALL THE LUCK AND BE AT THE ESKIMOS 7-3

Hewitt and Sutherland Were Hit Freely—Eskimos Hits Dropped Right Into Some Waiting Fielder's Mit—Locals Had Men on Bases, But Necessary Hits Were Not Forthcoming.

Medicine Hat opened the last series across. In the ninth they made their of the season here last evening, and because they hit when hits were especially needed, and were quite lucky, they won by the score of 7 to 3. The Eskimos had a chance all the way, but were never able to deliver the hit just at the right time, and for that reason had men left on bases time and time again, and even had men as far as third and the batter full, but the necessary blows were not forthcoming, and so they lost.

It was a nice game to watch, because the locals always did have a chance if they could but have made the most of it, and they were fighting all the way, and right up to the last of the ninth it looked as if something might happen to bring home the bacon. The locals were opposed by pitcher Martin, who worked a steady game and was found for 19 blows, two of which were two-baggers by Bill Fortier. Hewitt started for the Eskimos, but was found for five hits and two runs in 1-2-3 innings, and was derided in favor of Sutherland, who was hit freely, but was successful in landing two safe blows.

The second was a terrible inning for the locals and the Hatters ran up five runs in no time, and this beat us. Two singles, a double and a base on balls were all that was needed to bring these across, and they did not score again until the eighth frame, when they put two more across after gathering three singles off Sutherland. The Eskimos got their first tally in the fourth, after gathering three singles, and then they did not score again until the seventh when it looked as if they might have won the game if the old luck had broken right. Three singles and a double were collected but only two runs came

After months of persistent effort and hard work in following up on every available clue, and involving the expenditure of thousands of dollars, the mounted police have at last been successful in rounding up at least one, and possibly two of the Amiah murderers, at Toronto, in connection with telegraphic dispatches.

An reported exclusively in the Capital some weeks ago, the mounted police authorities here, having failed at all other pertaining to recent movements of any suspicious characters, started on their system of working backward, and looking into circumstances and happenings before the murder, and, as it afterward developed, this line of endeavor proved, to say the least, encouraging, for suspicious men soon came up a man named McGill, an Englishman, who had previously lived on a homestead near the scene of the murder of Justice of the Peace Shivas.

All information possible concerning this man was obtained by the mounted police and even a number of snapshots were secured from a film which McGill had left with a friend, although he had taken the pains to get all the prints of the picture and take them with him when he left the district. McGill was then traced to Toronto, having worked his way as a cattle train.

Sergeant McBrayne, of the local department, was at once detailed upon the search for the man, and a message received at headquarters today reports the finding of McGill, and also another man with him, who may be one of the three men connected with the murder of Shivas. McGill has admitted to Sergeant McBrayne that he was one of the three men present in the restaurant when Shivas was shot, but denies that he did the shooting, though he says it was the talk of the trio who committed the murder.

Both McGill and his companion who accompanied him east on the cattle train, are being brought back by Sergeant McBrayne, and the search for the "tail man" will be once again begun. He is known as Bob Bennett, alias Bob Weir, and is said to be living at High River, a warrant is out for his arrest, although the name will likely be arrested any day. Immediately Bennett is arrested, the three suspects, once shown admitted being a member of the trio, will be brought before the mounted police authorities and the game for the actual shooting will likely be fixed. It is believed by the police that, when the three men are brought back, each will blame the other for the shooting of Shivas.

WIRELESS STATIONS IN CANADA BUT GOVERNMENT MUST CLOSE SAYS ORDRR

An announcement has been made by the district officer commanding military district No. 14, his headquarters at Calgary, that, on instructions from Ottawa, all wireless telegraph stations in Canada must be closed.

Colonel Edward Cruikshank, district officer commanding at Calgary, stated that the order was issued by the government, and was known as widely as possible. Among those which will have to be closed are the wireless telegraph stations in Edmonton and the one just installed by Manager C. L. Gill, of the Fairview theatre, who intended to be used for picking up news of the war. It is said to be capable of picking up messages from stations on the Pacific coast. Ottawa has been wired with a request that one of the officers of the 19th Alberta Dragoons be placed in charge of the Fairview station temporarily and should the news received be not detrimental in any way to the Canadian war operations, it will be given to the patrons of the theatre, as intended by Mr. Gill.
